

Public Law 95-34
95th Congress

Joint Resolution

May 26, 1977
[H.J. Res. 424]

To authorize the Administrator of General Services to accept land, buildings, and equipment, without reimbursement, for the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Library, and for other purposes.

John Fitzgerald
Kennedy Library,
Mass.
GSA, acceptance
of land, buildings
and equipment.

Report.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Administrator of General Services is hereby authorized to accept, for and in the name of the United States, and take title on behalf of the United States to, any land, buildings, and equipment that have been or may be offered to the United States, without reimbursement, for the purpose of maintaining, operating, and protecting a Presidential archival depository in memory of John Fitzgerald Kennedy at Columbia Point, city of Boston, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as part of the National Archives system. The Administrator may accept such property and make agreements, as necessary, to complete the transfer of title to the United States without regard to the provision of section 2108(a) of title 44, United States Code, that the Administrator may not take title to land, buildings, and equipment or make an agreement, until the expiration of the first period of sixty calendar days of continuous session of the Congress following the date on which a report in writing on any such proposed Presidential archival depository is transmitted by the Administrator to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to impair or affect the authority of the Administrator under any other provision of section 2108 of title 44, United States Code, or any provision of other law.

Approved May 26, 1977.
